

THE PACIFIC
Commercial Advertiser

WALTER G. SMITH, EDITOR

TUESDAY : : : NOVEMBER 3

THE NATIONAL OUTLOOK.

The Republican forecasts from the East have an air of certainty such as marked those of 1872, in the Grant-Greeley campaign and those of 1900 in the last McKinley-Bryan campaign. The betting, too, is heavily Republican. From the start there has been no Democratic enthusiasm for Parker and no serious business defection from Roosevelt.

It is always difficult to oust the party in power while times are good or at least passably good; and rarely difficult when times are hard. The last term of Cleveland was a disastrous one to the trade of the country and this made it the easier to defeat Bryan. Hard times this year might have saved Parker or even have nominated and elected Bryan; but things commercial are doing very well and the people want them to be left alone. Hence the strong probability that Roosevelt will triumph in today's polling.

CONGRESSIONAL

Today the voters of this Territory will decide whether they want to be represented at Washington by Kuhio or Notley. It looks as if Iaukea had lost so many votes that he would come out in the polling a bad third. His Hawaiian following is said to have gone over, in the main, to the Home Rule element; and it is the latter, rather than the Democracy, which looms dangerously in the foreground.

There is this to be said for Kuhio. His one term taught him something and every second term man gets more consideration, if he has been honest, than a first term man can have. Furthermore, Kuhio has agreed to take with him, if elected, a white secretary, posted on Hawaiian matters and able to make an argument in the committee rooms where a Territorial Delegate finds his principal work. Neither Iaukea nor Notley has consented to take a competent helper, evidently preferring such a secretary as Wilcox had. Their proposition is, whether they know it or not, to give Hawaii just such an experience as Wilcox did—a term of utter impotence so far as work for the Territory is concerned. McClellan may be trusted to save Kuhio from that; who have Notley and Iaukea in sight to save either of them?

While the Congressional prospect at best is not alluring, Kuhio is the wisest choice; and the Advertiser urges its voting readers to cast their ballots for him and to argue his claims with every man who is yet open to conviction.

LEGISLATIVE.

The legislative ticket presents an issue of conscience as well as of party loyalty; but this ground has been so well-tilled that it is unnecessary to go over it again. What the Advertiser desires to say here is that there is a large number of Republican candidates who are not handicapped by bad records or bad principles and who ought to be elected for the good of the Territory.

Among these are the three candidates for Senator, Bishop, Dowsett and Lane. They are good men and there is no sound reason why they should not be elected.

Andrade, Harris, Quinn and Liliakani deserve a full party and independent vote. They are honest and competent, and if they could be carried through to election the Fourth District would have a representation to be proud of.

The Fifth District Republican ticket has some weak spots but enough good men are to be found on it to satisfy a political taste that is not too exacting. If it has one candidate who deserves scratching, the Democratic ticket has four.

Nothing can go further to sustain an honest Executive than an honest Legislature.

The Japanese have got close to the vitals of Fort Arthur. Ten years ago today they were about as near and by the 10th they had the town. As the case stands the Japanese hold the southwestern forts except Liao-toshan, the forts to the north and northeast and now have jammed a wedge into the center. There is still much to be won, however, especially on the semi-peninsula known as the Tiger's Tail.

Iaukea began a speech yesterday with "My Fellow Home Rulers." The other day it was "My Fellow Republicans." Unless Iaukea stops to think he never can tell which particular party he belongs to at that particular time.

People sending returns to the Advertiser tonight will confer a favor by telephoning them to the business office of the paper, Main 88 and not to the editorial rooms, Main 148.

If you want the returns as fast as they come, do what you always do—mass in front of the Advertiser office and read them off a white sheet.

CECIL BROWN.

Senator Cecil Brown, an honest man in business, has a strange habit of perversity when it comes to legislation.

His record in the last Legislature is not one at which he can point with pride; and in the case of anybody else it would bring him out, in his capacity of a business man and taxpayer, with strong denunciations.

In the Legislature Senator Cecil Brown seemed to think that public office was a private snap, not merely for himself but for other people. He voted for the Pauoa water bill, though he must have known that the law provided a method of acquiring such property by which it might have been had for very much less than the sum called for in the bill. The Pauoa water act at $150,000 was a bad measure. As a private buyer Mr. Brown would not have offered more than $50,000 for the springs.

The Standard Telephone Company wanted a franchise. Senator Brown, holding a large interest in the existing company, led the opposition to the Standard on that account. He thought from the standpoint of private investment and not of public utility.

Senator Brown's pet measure was a bill intended to secure for his bank the custody of public funds for about fifteen years. It did not pass.

Much of the Senator's time in the last Legislature was spent in opposition to Governor Dole. Most of his time in the next Legislature he promises to use in opposition to Governor Carter. He wants to be a Gadfly Senator; but the people want to be represented by quite another kind of statesman.

DON'T WANT WAR.

The Evening Post declares that Mr. Roosevelt's letter says in effect to the army: "Elect me *** and your opportunities to glut your warlike passions will be increased"; and to the navy: "Elect me, and your guns shall be heard on every sea." Shucks! The army has not nearly as much warlike passion per capita as the Post's editorial staff, and the last thing the navy wants is war. Fighting modern warships is as disagreeable a job as exists. If Colonel Roosevelt offered the navy gun-play in every sea, the navy would come ashore and vote for Parker. The Post should apologize to the service and mix in more bromide with whatever it is taking. Men who know what war is don't like it. American professional fighting-men are always for peace until war actually comes. The folks who want war are amateur fighting-men, reformers, cranks, contractors, and some editors and publishers of newspapers.—Harper's Weekly.

tracks." He said that in Congress the Republicans had advocated the disenfranchising of the natives while the Democrats were the friends and backers of the Hawaiians. Nauha made the usual appeal to the ladies. He ended by saying that the Democratic party came to the polls with clean hands and had not debauched the campaign with coercion or booze. He gave the usual plea for the straight ticket.

MADEIROS.

M. R. Madeiros said that the Democrats had not needed to have a torch-light procession to create enthusiasm. Bishop and Dowsett would fight for the interests of the plantations and not the people. The Home Rulers have made an issue of Iaukea. For his part, said Madeiros, he would "rather go to Hell with Iaukea than to Heaven with Kuhio or Notley." He then referred to Notley's arrest. He claimed that he had heard a couple of Republicans saying they must win by hook or crook. The Democrats will see to it that there are no frauds.

KINNEY.

Mr. Kinney began by speaking of Umauma and N-kookoo and the affidavit as to the abusive letter of Harvey to N-kookoo. There was no such letter and they can't produce it. The Home Rulers claim that the Democrats are against the Hawaiians but put up not a single argument to back up the assertion. As for Kuhio he is honest but not attentive to business and therefore of no benefit to us. He is muzzled by the party and only says what is put in his mouth. He is being led around by the nose. Iaukea would make friends of his political enemies at Washington instead of making enemies of his friends as did Kuhio. Mr. Kinney then went through the list of the Democratic candidates, lading out soft soap with a lavish hand. He ended by roasting the Governor.

MOSSMAN.

Mossman said that he is not superstitious but a peculiar thing has happened every time up to now. Four years ago the Republicans held their last meeting at the Orpheum, and lost disastrously. Two years later the Home Rulers had the same thing happen and now the Republicans are again holding their last meeting at the Orpheum. The Democrats therefore will probably sweep the boards. We have had four years of Republican misrule and need a change. Mossman then roasted the Republicans for the way the campaign funds have been spent. The Islands never needed Democracy as much as now. The Home Rulers are noisy but do not accomplish anything. Our only salvation is to vote the Democratic ticket. Mossman ended by urging them to remember the "fat Democrat" when voting.

IAUKEA.

Iaukea said that the ballot place is where we all can show our disapproval of the Governor's methods. He referred to the hula at the Republican meeting and said it cut him to the heart to have such a thing happen. Still, it showed to what the Republicans would stoop to draw a crowd. "Vote straight and show your disapproval of such conduct." The Home Rulers when in power did nothing. The Republicans are ashamed of some of their work. The County Act for example. Iaukea ended with the usual straight vote plea.

WALLER.

G. J. Waller said that the Republicans had looked in vain for a weak spot in the Democratic platform and so had turned to personalities, a sure sign of weakness. The Democrats had conducted the campaign on their platform and their strength was shown by Carter's return of the undated resignations of the judges and the getting permission to go to Kalaupapa. The addresses of the Democrats have been ridiculed but their arguments have not been met successfully. Mr. Waller spoke of the "Star's" quotations from his speech of the other night and said that its reasoning was wrong as it took simply a few lines and did not show their relation to the rest of the speech. He asked all to go to the polls in as orderly a manner as they had shown at the meetings. He asked all to vote for Brown and the regular Democratic ticket. Should they win it would be a protest against the autocratic rule of the present administration and a rebuke is needed.

Mrs. H. Wingate Lake leaves on the Alameda for the Coast, owing to the crowded condition of the transport. Thomas she was unable to secure accommodations on that vessel.

The polls are open today from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

THE BRIGHT SIDE

of life. It is a feeling common to the majority of us that we do not get quite the amount of happiness we are entitled to. Among the countless things which tend to make us more or less miserable ill health takes first place. Hannah More said that sin was generally to be attributed to biliousness. No doubt a crippled liver with the resulting impure blood, is the cause of more mental gloom than any other single thing. And who can reckon up the fearful aggregate of pain, loss and fear arising from the many diseases which are familiar to mankind; like a vast cloud it hangs over a multitude no one can number. You can see these people everywhere. For them life can scarcely be said to have any "bright side" at all. Hence the eagerness with which they search for relief and cure. Remedies like WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION have not attained their high position in the confidence of the people by bald assertions and boasting advertisements. They are obliged to win it by doing actually what is claimed for them. That this remedy deserves its reputation is conceded. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Nothing has such a record of success in Scrofula, Influenza, Throat and Lung Troubles, and emaciating complaints and disorders that tend to undermine the foundations of strength and vigor. Its use helps to show life's brighter side. Professor Reddy, of Canada, says: "I have much pleasure in stating that I have used it in cases of debility and found it to be a very valuable remedy as well as pleasing to take." You cannot be disappointed in it. Sold by chemists.

Scrofula

It is commonly inherited. Few are entirely free from it. Pale, weak, puny children are afflicted with it in nine cases out of ten, and many adults suffer from it. Common indications are bunches in the neck, abscesses, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, catarrh, wasting, and general debility.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
and Pills

Eradicate it, positively and absolutely. This statement is based on the thousands of permanent cures these medicines have wrought.

"My daughter had scrofula, with eleven sores on her neck and about her ears. Hood's Sarsaparilla was highly recommended and she took it and was cured. She is now in good health." Mrs. J. H. Jones, Parker City, Ind.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.
